Kendriya Vidyalaya Staff Association	Shri P. S. Sharma, (President)

(d) All India Kendriya Vidyalaya Teachers Association in their letter dated 22-2-89 objected to the composition of the staff side of Joint Consultative Machinery on the following grounds:

(i) the representation given to teaching and non-teaching staff is dis-proportionate to their strength.

fii) categorisation of non-teaching staff posted in Kendriya Vidyalayas and at the Headquarters and Regional Offices is not rational.

(iii) The basis for provision of seats where there are more than one association of a group of employees is not clear.

(iv) Grouping of different categories of employees is ambiguous.

Distribution of seats has been made as per the decision of the Board of Governors, in order to give representation to the different categories of personnel employed in Kendriya /idyalaya Sangathan.
